Would-Be Racer.—You can usually learn when and where races are to be held if you read The Sus. There have been very few events for navices on the programmes run this year in this vicinity, and there are not likely to be many. If you address the American Cycle Racing, Association, 220 Broadway, you would get entry blanks for all their meetings. In racing, a membership with some club is helpful, but the fact that you do not belong to any will not be a hindrance.

NOTES.

ish Consul the English and American cycle manufacturers have not found a good market in China and other places in the Orient because they do not put dragons and grotesage decorations on their machines. The not considered to be a favorable omen. There are certain colors which have peculiar recognition by the ordinary class of Chinese, while others offend either their tastes or their superstitions. Chinamen, it is said, will frequently buy soap, medicine, biscuits and other small and all that is needed to make American bicycles popular in the Flowery Kingdom is for the manufacturers to make a personal study o decorative work.

A gratifying success has been attained by those who have been endeavoring to organize the new Country Cycle Club, with headquarters at Morris Heights. The prospects are that the limit set for the original membership, 300, will be reached within a few days, in which event ground will be at once broken for the new clubhouse, which it is proposed to have ready for occupancy early in September. The lines upon which the club is being formed have met with much favor. The house will be constructed so as to be suitable for winter as well as summer use. While the clubhouse is being constructed the members will use the cottage on the Berkeley Oval grounds. A few of the members already enrolled are:

and they furnished a rattling finish. Ways and Means was very unfortunate during the race, as he was shut off twice. The field swung wide coming into the stretch and Martin slipped through on the rail in time to win by a neck, with A. N. B. a head before Sugden. Buela was an even money choice in the second, and she found no difficulty in winning. Sloan permitted Saratoga to show the way to the stretch, where Buela went to the front. Athamas, the 7 to 5 second choice, captured the third race after a driving finish with the 7 to 10 favorite Peat. The latter was clearly the best horse, but Williams messed him about during the race and made his run too late. The fourth race looked like a gift to Mr. Clay, and he was at odds on. That he was pounds the best horse was shown during the race, for after being shut off twice he came through in the stretch and won easily by a length and a half from Galahad. John McCaferly sprang a good thing in the last race in his colt Lexington Pirate made all the running, and won in a gallop by four lengths from Ronino. Aratoma, the favorite, was a poor fifth. A strange picture was made by three colored men and a goiden-haired baby, all in a wagon-load of bicycles on the bridge yesterday fore-noon. There was no point or reason in it, but the sight attracted a great deal of attention and fascination simply because of its oddness and pictures/queness. It was an ordinary express wagon, earrying about seven or eight bicycles. The men occupied the seat and on the floor of the wagon sat the pretty child with flazen hair, dressed, all in white. It was a girl, about? years old, and she sat with her thumb in her mouth, looking as solemn and unconcerned among the wheels as if she had been born in a bicycle factory.

Baltimore, July 28.—There is trouble in store for Jimmy Michael, and if the little fellow is forced to iny up for a while or pay a heavy fine, it will all be owing to the poor judgment displayed by Shaefer, his manager. Michael was scheduled to race against Titus at the Colosseum track last night. Four thousand persons journeyed out there only to find the place in darkness, and the Weish crack non-est. It seems that his manager projudged the weather as bad, and five hours before the time for the race sent his man to Philadelphia. Now Chairman Albert Mott of the National Bacing Board of the L. A. W. has the matter in hand. The League has rules governing such a case, and Mott will be asked to enforce them by Manager Prince of the Colosseum.

Mott would not say to-day what he intended to do in the matter. He says that he must wait first to ascertain the facts, as these cases usually have two sides. He must first get the reports of the referee and the promoter who got the sanction. These will explain officially why the races did not take place and will give Mott a basis of action. He must then communicate with Michael and get his side of the story, when he will act. Michael's offence, so far as the facts have been stated, is breach of contract, or refusing to ride after having entered for a race.

It was rumored that Tod and Tom next year, met yesterday and made up a ticket. As W. W. Armstrong, the third member of the committee, was not present, it was decided to make no announcement of the names selected until they could be mailed to Bochester and rearned approved by Armstrong. President Potter, after deliberation, reached the conclusion that he could not afford again to take the helm, no matter how much the League might need him. President Potter was known to entry in the Futurity, as this was agreed upon. favor the selection of Vice-Consul Milo M. In the German Army dogs are trained to tear cyclist soldiers from their wheels. The bitter experience of some riders with canines in country districts here indicates that some of this breed has crossed the ocean. If the German Army continues its experiments and encourages this breed of dogs to increase, there may come a time when the L.A. W. can be useful by making periodical reports on the location of dogs, and by plastering the rural roads with slight of warning at places where there is a "German dog."

Hera Leads the Thirty-Footers Home. NEWPORT, July 20.-The thirty-footers sailed a sweepstake race this afternoon, the contest for the Ellis Cup being postponed until next week. There was a strong breeze from the southwest, but the sea was flat. A thick fog hung over the bay during most of the race. The course was to Dyers Island and return by way of Jamestown. The Carolina got the best of the start, but in the run up the bay the Hera took the lead, rounding the mark first. The Vaquero III. was a close second. The wind-Vaquero III. was a close second. The wind-ward work then began. When halfway down the bay the Vaquero III. carried away her weather shroud and had to withdraw from the race, going home under double reef. The Hern held the lead and finished 30 seconds ahead of the Carolina. Miss Elsie Clews sailed on the winning boat, Mrs. Duryea on the Vaquero III., and Mrs. Morgan and Center Hitchcock on the Puck. CINCINNATI, July 29.—Dammann and Dunn were both hit rather freely to-day, but the hits off Dammann were scattered. But it was the fine infield work of the Reds that won. Corcon's playing was at times little short of marvellous, McPnee doing almost as well. In the sixth inning, with Magoon and Shindle on first and third, Ryan sent a hot liner over second that seemed safe, but Corcoran, at full speed, knocked it down, picked it up and threw it backward to McPnee, who threw to Beckley for a double play. The visitors' fielding was brilliant in spots only. Hallman's wild throw was responsible for a brace of runs. The score:

and he agrees to box the big Californian next September, if necessary. The champion came to town from Asbury Park yesterday morning to attend to some business. Before he went back in the afternoon he said:

"I am tired of letting a lot of cheap boxers get advortisements at my expense, and think it is the proper time to call them. I mean just what I say, that I won't box any one whom I have already defeated. I gave two chances to Peter Maher, to be sure, but there was some doubt as to whether I defeated him squarely in the first fight. As to Corbett, I may meet him once more, provided, of course, he faces all those whom I have asked him to box. But the only man who really deserves any notice from me at present is Jim Jeffries. He has never been leked, and, what's more, he is a good man. So, you see, I'm compelled to take him on first."

me at present is Jim Jeffries. He has never been licked, and, what's more, he is a good man. Bo, you see, I'm compelled to take him on first."

"How about McCoy?" was asked.

"Oh, ves," replied Fitz with some healtation.

"I'll fight, him, too, at the heavyweight or middleweight limit should he defeat Corbett. I predict that Corbett will win that fight. He is very clever, but is not much of a punisher. However, it will be a good go."

The fact that Fitz would box Jeffries was published in The Sun of July 22, but it was not thought he would agree to take him on so quickly. Fitz, through his manager, intends to issue a statement some time next week. Tom O'Bourke said yesterday that he would give a big purse to Fitzsimmons to meet Jeffries in a twenty-round bout at the Lenox A. C., in September. He would not say just how much, but it is thought it will be as much as $25,000.

Fitz says that he is in good health and that he can easily get into condition within two weeks. He likes to play handball and is seriously thinking of adding a court to his Asbury Park property.

Should Jim Jeffries succeed in his attempt to defeat two pugilists in one night, he will re-velcome ocean breeze by turns. They fared far better with the breeze than with the fickle goddess, as only one favorite pulled through during an afternoon of upsets. This was in the third race, when the bookmakers had the hardihood to offer even money or better against old Dutch Skater, whose only opponents were Banquo II. and Lansdale. He took the pair into camp very readily. The imported colt Field Lark and W. Lakeland's Decide carried the plungers' money in the opening dash, but the race resulted in a clever two-length victory for J. S. Worthing-ton's Buffoon. Moody on Red Spider behaved clever two-length victory for J. S. Worthington's Buffoon. Moody on Bed Spider behaved badly at the post and was set down for two days. Form players could see nothing but Tender in the second race, with Subject next in demand. Both were run off their feet in the atretch by Passaic, who won by two lengths. Jack Point was passed over as having too much weight up in the two-year-old handicap, fifth on the card. He rated along behind the leaders to the stretch, where he moved up from fifth position, and won by a length from Dan Cupid. Helen Thomna, the favorite, got within hall of the money turning for home, but the best she could do was a close fourth. Her jockey, Thompson, was fined $10 for spoiling several breaks. Rotterdam hung on to the favorite, Continental, in the last race and maderings around him in the last race and maderings around him in the last parter, winning by a length and a half.

The chief feature for to-day is the Brighton Cup, for three-year-olds and upward, at two miles and a quarter. Although the association hangs up a purse of $7,500, owners have responded in very discouraging fashion and only four probable starters were named last night. These include Marcus Daly's pair, Hamburg, and Ogden, and they are expected to take the lion's share of the spoils. Tod Sloan is said to be on his way from Saratoga to ride Hamburg, who ran so freely for him in the Realization, Superintendent Clare hopes to have the track in good shape if no rain fails in the interval, and the lack of competition may be counterbalanced by a record performance.
